Street Commissioner:

Zoning:

The Williams' residence had a garage constructed they do not have a zoning permit. And the building is in the village easement. The Fetters' residence has a complaint against them as well. The house on the corner of Wayne Street also has some complaints against it. Severns' old house has complaints against them as well. These will be addressed.

P & R Disposal has been purchased by Maharg Trash Service. The P & R bags will still be picked up. We need to make people aware that the brush collection is open and available to the public for their yard waste.

Mrs. Cox asked about the process that Montezuma is using to issue citations. There was some discussion about a police presence in the village.

The mayor read a letter from Marjorie Trisel expressing her concerns about the state of the village.

New Business:

Amanda asked about safety at the park on Main Street. Is there any way we can install removable speedbumps or something to protect the safety of the children playing at the park? There is a concern about during the winter plowing season. Council will ask Josh about this.

Jackie Cox asked about getting stone in the alley behind her house. Seth will look at the alley.

Veryl Sheets wants to know why they never installed a driveway at the Overley property on Main Street. Council will talk to Josh about it.

Old Business:
